The President at the outset informed the members the purpose of the meeting and read the notice for the Special Meeting He said that the calendar of events had already been sent to the members and in accordance with the calendar of events only one application of Sri R Subbanna for the Presidentship and only one from Sri G V Challam for the Vice Presidentship had been received and both of them were properly represented

The President then read the relavant rules regarding the procedure to be adopted and said that there was no need for any election by ballot and that the number of members present was more than 50% and that therefore the Council was competent to hold the election in terms of the procedure prescribed for election in case where there was only one candidate for the office of the President and only one candidate for the Office of the Vice President

The President declared Sri R Subbanna as having been duly elected as President for the year commencing from 1-1-1949 to end of 31-12-1949 and so also Sri G V Chellam as Vice President for the period from 1-1-49 to 31-12-49

The President then congratulated Sri R Subbanna and Sri G V Chellam the newly elected President and Vice Presiden respectively on their unanimous election and expressed full confidence that the work of the Council would continue as vigorously as heretofore

Messrs N Keshava Iyengar S K Venkatarangaiengar; A J Khaleel, V R Naidu, G Nanjappa, G S Devadoss, P R Ramaiya D R Puttanna, Pujadaliah, all spoke and congratulated Sri R Subbanna and Sri G V Chellam on their unanimous election as President and Vice President and wished God-speed in their new offices

Sri R Subbanna and Sri G V Chellam replied suitably and offered their grateful thanks to the President and members for their kind sentiments and requested the fullest cooperation and guidance of the Municipal Council in the discharge of their duties

Then the meeting terminated

K Ramaiya Chetty
